

UNILATERALLY BANNED ON ALL FORUMS AND COMMENT SECTIONS

This morning, I discovered that I was suddenly unilaterally banned on ALL, not just 1 or 2, I mean ALL forums and comment sections. This is not just GLP, which locks everyone of positive influence out leading up to important events, I mean it is ALL OF THEM. I have never been banned anywhere before. I don't post stuff from this web site anywhere and play it cool everywhere. If anyone else has been banned everywhere, it needs to be news. And I noticed that everything was totally dry, with little to no support for Trump anywhere, when there is usually huge support. This would indicate that an artificial intelligence has been employed to ban anyone who disagrees with the official MSM line.

Why would they do this? Because they are going to pull something HUGE today and through the inauguration, and we let them get powerful enough to abuse places like SpamHaus to simply shut down dissent at the flip of a switch. They are saying the paid protesters for the Trump inauguration is a fake story now even after the MSM called it real, and they want a COMPLETE SMACK DOWN on every last individual who might say the truth about what happens at the inauguration. They just showed their cards this morning, and exactly how they intend to play them.

BLOW THE WHISTLE NOW. If you are alt media, BLOW THE WHISTLE BECAUSE WHAT JUST HAPPENED PROVED THEY ARE NOT GOING TO LET DECENT PEOPLE SAY WHAT IS REALLY GOING ON AT THE INAUGURATION. Obviously I am going to try to stay on top of it and do what I can from here.

At a bare minimum, between 1,000 and 2,000 people who read this web site are going to be in DC, or able to at least get a real view of what is going on there. And this web site branches out to Infowars and other huge sites, that use my material now on at least a weekly if not daily basis. My stuff has directly made the front page of Drudge several times but was not credited back to this site. One good example everyone will remember is the Newsweek Hillary reports that made it that far. If you manage to get anything through the message window that alone might be the critical link it takes to blow the whole story open everywhere.

Today, at 3PM Eastern time, they are going to release their last nuke on Trump, where he's talking badly about minorities back stage for The Apprentice program. If they are blocking comments from decent people, blanket bans across multiple venues, most likely they have a large amount of CGI fakery and false editing in what they are going to release, and they don't want alt media discussing it and killing it. We need to be extra vigilant to stay on top of this and everything else, because clearly, even before they released it, they are already playing more than dirty.

Obviously we need Trump to wipe out many corruptly used spam filters if any newcomer is going to get anywhere in the alt media, I may have gotten a jump on this and become prominent but even despite that I have not been able to send E-mails for more than 4 years now from anywhere to anywhere, even from random accounts at random providers, at all. If I get a cell phone, it will work for ONE CALL and then never receive or successfully send another call, EVER. I have a huge stack of $20 cell phones from 3 years ago, when I finally gave up. I had cell phones working perfectly in the analog days, right up until 2011 when I did the Fukushima report, and then they started going to * and after 2012 have not worked at all. They want me totally SHUT UP, and the artificial intelligence recognizes, tracks, and logs everything THAT WELL.

Everyone needs to be aware of the fact that this type of thing is going on, and that today and over the next while, until Trump fixes it, that people are not ignoring you, they really did not get the call. They can easily kill a business with that. The trick they use to shut my phones off is the voice mail trick, where it pretends everyone you call goes to voice mail, and then it throws away any message you send. Incoming calls are exactly the same, the phone will NEVER ring no matter what, yet the people calling at least get a voicemail answer so they think you are an A-hole for never calling back or answering all the while there is never any voicemail message left by them as far as you see it, and no confirmation of any calls coming in whatsoever. And suddenly, when whoever is upset with you gets to see your phone, the AI listens well enough and tracks their location well enough to put everything they did, said, and sent you, right there on the screen so you look like a total ass when you really never did get it until then. If I was one of the early ones who had a cell phone when they were analog, hated the switch to digital when everyone sounded like they were chewing marbles, and then all the way through 2011 with everything perfect, I am not too stupid to use a cell phone. If you are unaware that type of sabotage is happening, it will KILL YOU. Everyone knows I don't carry a cell phone now, that is how I handled it.

Be aware of this over the next while, because it appears that a great smack down is happening now to silence the heart of America and allow the spawn of satan to take center stage as the only voice heard. Do not get angry with acquaintances over missed calls, try, try, and re-try. That did not work for me, but it might work for you.

Why NFL TV ratings are down, and why you don't have to care

The NFL's ratings are down. You don't have to care. Contrary to what the NFL would like you to think, it's not a fifth branch of the military, a fourth branch of government, or even a third uncle to you. It's not a national park, or a vital security interest for this nation. It's 32 billionaire owners running an overgrown children's contest with contract labor and wildly variable degrees of competent management. You can opt out. It's legal.

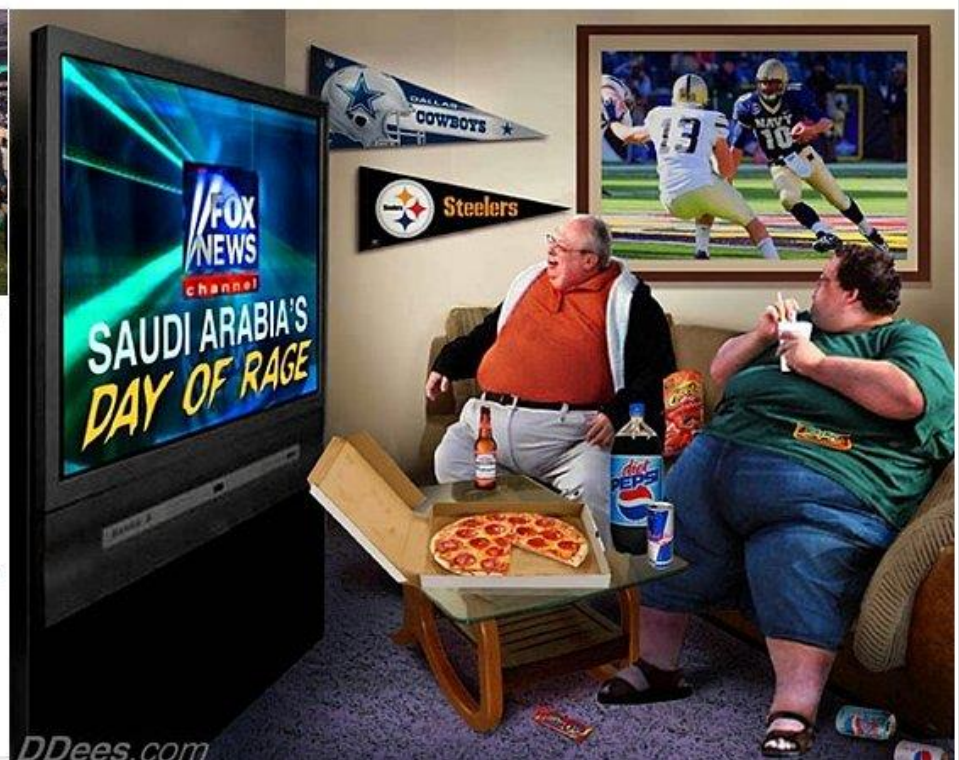

Forbes

EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ - DECEMBER 05: Ryan Fitzpatrick #14 of the New York Jets shakes hands with Andrew Luck #12 of the Indianapolis Colts after the Colts defeated the Jets 41 to 10 at MetLife Stadium on December 5, 2016 in East Rutherford, New Jersey. (Photo by Al Bello/Getty Images)

Here at the Olin Business School at Washington University in St. Louis - just recently ranked the top undergraduate business program in America - it's that time of year for students to start cramming for their final exams.

And with the NFL's TV ratings taking a nosedive in 2016, perhaps it's time we Hillary and Soros are probably related. I have not seen it said anywhere, but it sure looks possible when her face has not been seriously doctored.

Prediction: Trump's inauguration will not be disrupted by anything other than paid protesters.

DisruptJ20 will fail for several reasons

Everyone knows about the women's march on DC, the gay party that is planned to disrupt the inauguration, and DisruptJ20, which had plans to spoil the ceremony with vomit gas and other things. It will all fail. It really is a foregone conclusion that it will ALL FAIL.

Here is what will happen: We'll get a few synagogues emptied onto the streets of DC, to fake whoever they are supposed to fake for, perhaps a thousand or so gays will have a party, and the women's march will number less than 10,000 because THAT is all the liberal left has among it's ranks that will actually go. They are in fact VERY small in number compared to the rest of America. On the other hand,

No legitimate dissent to be found.

If widespread legitimate dissent against Trump was real, they would not need to pay an exorbitant amount to get people to protest.

Bikers could teach the paid protestors a lesson by putting a padlock on the end of a chain and wacking them with it when they ride by. That is exactly what they deserve.

We are going to get a massive wave of Harley riders and Trump supporters through DC that is epic, unlike anyone has ever seen and they are going to seriously disrupt all activities of the liberal left. The bikers alone are going to cause so much fear in the hearts of liberals that they alone will represent the single greatest deterrent that reduces the left's numbers significantly.

The biggest faction of all will be paid for by George Soros and other high end trash. I found this article to the left here after I originally posted this. Seems I am right, because if true dissent was available, they would not have to offer $2,500 a person for it. There will not be a whole lot of real dissent that is not bought and paid for present, because by every measure I ever deemed credible, Trump took the actual election by 70 plus percent, and you don't get riots and other activities happening when a candidate like Hillary (who in fact, I believe, got less than 20 percent of the actual vote) loses.

MARK MY WORD, I AM RIGHT.

We'll get huge over reporting of whatever riots there are and huge under reporting of how many people showed up in support of Trump. Trump's supporters are going to outnumber the opposition by a ratio of 8:1 or more. It might be a little different if DC was in California, but geography will limit how many from California will make it to DC and even if they could go easily, they'd still be the minority. The only way we'll get a shred of truth is through whatever alt media shows up.

I am still deeply concerned about the guns that were found in DC however.

You don't just find guns laying in the weeds. They were there for a reason. As it turns out, there were a large number in garbage bags, complete with bullets. And I doubt a significant fraction of them were found. Now, it is going to be pretty difficult to get a long gun through a huge pile of Trump supporters, and it would be difficult to get a good shot with a hand gun (and whoever tried to use it would automatically be dead) so those two factors limit exactly how dangerous the guns are, but guns are guns, and some people are really good shots. Trump had better be behind glass, not having at least that much protection would be very irresponsible. He's worth more than taking a chance and should not be doing public exposure stunts.

A message to Trump

Judgedredd sent:

Hi James, I hope you are ok where you are with everything that is going on. I just figured out something which may have been figured out by others so here goes: The secret service detail that surrounds Donald Trump, the other US President and former US Presidents, is not there to protect (although that is what they are shown to do as a front) it is there to prevent contact between him and those that try and contact him with information outside of 'their' control or to prevent information that the President or President-Elect is trying to GET OUT or they are there to facilitate the President or President-Elect in being assassinated (extropolated from the JFK shooting evidence video of a secret service agent backing away from the car just prior to JFK getting shot).

I say this because I have written a personal letter to Trump which can be found here:

artistfortheiving.com/Letter_Complete_redacted.pdf (249 pages 112MB - with my info redacted) - and then I came to the road blocks of trying to get it to him. I rang his lawyers and left a message and never got any call back. I left a Tweet on his account (I follow him) with the statement that I was trying to get this letter to him and gave him the URL for it (different to the one above). I then thought about all the ways in which he is 'protected' - Having his emails and social media accounts 'managed' by the secret service, having his mail read 'in case there is something there to harm' etc. These are all classic 'problem-reaction-solution' scenarios.

I hope I don't have to go into details why that is - I know you understand, but what about your readers? So that is why I wrote to you - if I can't get the letter to him in a private way then it needs to be done publicly. This way the fuckers who are trying to control him will have less control over him. He will eventually get that letter, although some of the info will be too old for him to do anything about. I just hope this message gets through to you."

My response: People have written saying the information is GREAT, and one writer said Trump already had it. I would not bank on that, it is staying posted.

He won't have time for 249 pages.

Donald Trump released "Hillary's 10 step guide to getting rich"

From the looks of this, it looks like Hillary is DOOMED now

Here are the steps:

Step 1: Start a foundation that accepts loads of money from foreign countries and donors.

Step 2: Become Secretary of State

Step 3: Set up a private email server to cover your tracks

Step 4: Meet with foreign leaders with one condition: They donate big bucks to the foundation

Step 5: Foreign leaders, dignitaries (really anyone who paid to play) gets special favors from Hillary

Step 6: Delete any email correspondence on your personal email server

Step 7: Just in case, destroy devices with a hammer

Step 8: Pray you donâ€™t get caught

Step 9: Get caught, cover up, Lieâ€™ and lie and lie and lie and lie

Step 10: Run for president!

See Trump's original post HERE.

Trump is not going to wash well with "politicians" because he is real and does not play politics at all. He'll just say it like it is.

NFL Football is probably doomed

It accidentally landed on the TV twice yesterday. It is not the same as it was 20 years ago, that is obvious. It seems fake. The players lack emotion. What was so wrong with spiking a football that they had to ban it? The crowd sounded fake, like piped in cheering. Nothing seemed real. The entire feel was boring and dark.

I do not watch football, and never did even in the past unless someone else had it on. But in the past I at least did not gag when I saw it, this time around it felt like watching a five gallon bucket drip fill. It did not help to have a pre-set bad attitude towards it over the recent politics also. The sport of curling now blows NFL Football away for all I care. At least the people are passionate with curling. Political correctness did not wreck that sport yet I guess.

Anyway, here is the fairly new (2012) NFL rule against fun:

The excessive celebration ruling would result in a 15-yard penalty under Rule 12, Section 3, Article 1 of the rulebook.

The rule reads: "These acts include but are not limited to: sack dances; home run swing; incredible hulk; spiking the ball; throwing or shoving the ball; pointing; pointing the ball; verbal taunting; military salute; standing over an opponent (prolonged and with provocation); or dancing.

THE NFL is dying (in part) because it is in bed with communist style STUPID. You are a resource. Forget the fun. Score your touch down and SHUT UP.

"ISIS ATTACK" IN MEXICO??!!??

Last night a shooting happened at a night club in Cancun. The shooting was directed against Americans, Canadians, Brits, and other white people who happen to frequent the club. Bullets came in through an open window.

Now, there are trolls testing the water on various forums to see if people will be stupid enough to believe it was ISIS, RATHER THAN A DRUG CARTEL, OR DRUNK PEDRO PISSED OFF AT AMERICANS OVER THE NEW WALL THAT WILL BE GOING IN.

I would not have even considered wasting page space on this until a few random fools started testing the water with ISIS.

LET ME PUT THIS TO BED: THERE ARE PROBABLY 300 MUSLIMS IN ALL OF MEXICO, AND THEY ALL WORK AT EMBASSIES IN MEXICO CITY. There is absolutely nothing else here. There is no way ISIS could hide. If ISIS was really in Mexico, and it was not just ISIS corporation I have pointed out many times on this site, 1. The Mexican people would kill them. 2. The drug cartels would kill them. 3. The Federal police would kill them. 4. The local police would kill them, and 5. The regular Mex armed forces would kill them.

When it comes to crap like ISIS, there are ZERO Mexicans that would just sit around and let it happen. And they would NOT be able to operate a secret base here. You do, after all, need to eat and drink water, ALL OF WHICH would be sold from tiny stores run by Mexican locals and they'd figure out what was going on by the third time any fool got something from the store. They would solve the mystery 50X as fast as any police effort and then all hell would break loose. There is not a chance ISIS would find a single sympathetic Mexican to help them either.

HERE IS "ISIS", probably an offshoot of the Clinton Global Initiative. ISIS will be going out of business now that the Clintons have left town.

ISIS in Mexico is absolutely nothing more than propaganda, and an American paramilitary company called ISIS that has a base in Mexico across the border from El Paso. Maybe the CIA would pull a stunt too. But THAT IS ALL.

Pluto: Anonymous sent:

Not sure if you pay attention to this sort of stuff. I don't really but found this to be interesting.

Pluto is in Capricorn. Pluto destroys the bad and brings good. The last time Pluto was in Capricorn was during 1776. The period now started 2008 and goes til 2023. 2023 being ostensibly the end of a second Trump administration. Considering 1776 and what the rebels were up against, the fact that they won their independence is certainly notable. What is also notable in current events is that every attack against Trump has been soundly defeated. There are parallels that are developing. What say you?"

My response: Astrology and other things using planetary events and superstition to make predictions is a huge topic, and some of it is legit. However, I never delved into what was legit and what was not. So yes, it is interesting on that basis only and I can't give a yea or nay. I have never given Astrology or any other thing of this type even 3 seconds of thought other than that if you can make fire demons jump out of a fire (which really can happen) and there are people killing kids to get power, then there must be a dark and mythical reason. Obviously the position of Pluto would not be related to anything demonic, I am just saying that there is more out there than most people realize.

Good luck with that, when I go through the mail with a code viewer, rather than open it with a mail application.

These come through frequently. This one was probably sent to phish information in an effort to bust the newly configured message box.

747 crash

This is significant because it was a 747. This happened so recently that details are sparse. Click the picture for the RT report.

Turkish cargo plane crash site near Kyrgyzstan's International Manas Airport outside Bishkek, Jan. 16, 2017. © ZUMAPRESS.com / www.globallookpress.com

At least 37 people have been killed after a cargo plane belonging to Turkish Airlines crashed into a residential neighborhood

Many comments (over time) asking about Breitbart

My response: Yes, it is a Jewish outfit. Granted, they are not anywhere near as bad as the MSM but I'm a real fence sitter with them, I predominantly ignore them. Breitbart can't even get the story of 911 straight. That is the most basic litmus test there is. Let's see Trump sit down and do an interview with Henry Makow instead, he's actually a good Jew even if he's not all in for Trump. Henry would teach Trump more in a half hour than Breitbart ever would, ever.

"I had to google David Duke to see who he was after reading your little mention of him. The blurb to the right of all the links quoted Wikipedia: "David Ernest Duke is an American white nationalist, politician, antisemitic conspiracy theorist, Holocaust denier, and former Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan."

Lol, really? I'm sure glad to see Google and Wikipedia aren't biased or anything and that the truth shows through.

My response: I was never a fan of the KKK, and don't think David Duke was any sort of "imperial wizard" for them, but the rest of it is accurate and stands as SOLID CREDENTIALS. No doubt about it, he's the finest man in politics. After 50 plus years of getting crushed under the Communist boot, America needs a SOLID DOSE of Duke recovery. If Merkel is matter, Duke is anti matter and if the two hit, Europe would return to perfect health in a flash. He's enough to cancel her out to zero.

Walking Turtle sent:

(The last time I heard from Walking Turtle is when the message window was new)

"Hi Jim! It's Walking Turtle with a wee thought. Per your article: "The [corporate] media is saying Trump is very unpopular. That's a lie." Ah, but not within their OWNERS' sphere! Which is why the current bought-and-paid-for, sold-out gang of "Trustworthy News Anchors"(FNORD) reliably mouths and echos such "Party Line" BS ad nauseum all day long and all night too, these days, to the utter exclusion of all truth, reason, fairness and balance. It really IS their (infamous) JOB which is why the best and brightest of the Rest of Us have long since blown up the TeeVee, cancelled all the newspaper/magazine subscriptions, moved to the country whenever possible and now follow the news that arrives on our desktops via "Deplorable" YOU, Beloved!

Mr. Trump, per his recent tweets, seems poised to lay a heavy hand on the presstituted jamokes, though; YT prays Heaven he survives EIGHT WHOLE YEARS of the most popular Presidency in recorded history, accomplishes ALL his stated goals and lives on to tell the tale! But with the Clinton Global Initiative now admittedly discontinued and Mr. Trump publicly busting down on the CIA's horrid "Mockingbird" act-of-war against the Rest of Us re the 4Chan "Golden Shower" tale, maybe the true dawn is at last breaking, hm?

"Clinton Global Initiative": CGI and now DOA - or is it really only playing possum instead??? Like Campaign Liar Hillary really NOT being in North Carolina after all, HM. (Still got that one printed out and posted on my office wall.) Pack of lying megalomaniacal FOOLS.

The root of all evil is the black-hearted "love"(sic) of the money, but somehow the Clintonite "Globalistas" and their fellow-travelers always seemed to prefer to not know that, HM. So: Heaven bless YOU, Sir! You do NOT lie when you tag your site the "New Root of Truth" Fact: You, my friend, sure do deserve a MILLION DOLLAR DONATION or three for all you have been put through by that pack of FILTHY PIGS, imvho. CNN/NBC/CBS/CIA/etc? Not so very much. Not one thin dime for that filth-ridden flock of bogus mockingbirds imvho as things now stand, in fact! More are awakening to this reality every day, thanks to truth-based souls such as yours. And that is all. 0{-)o["

My response: I am mortified when I make a mistake and clean it and announce it as soon as it is realized if it is up for any length of time. This site is live edited and a lot of stuff that goes up is minutes old news. That can lead to mistakes because I don't sit and ponder every line for five hours and then hit post. If I did that, I would produce very little and it would not be as cutting edge fresh as I try to keep it. If there is no story, I don't make one out of thin air just to get content. I try to keep it real.

As far as income goes, On January 20, if Trump actually makes it, I am going to send Google a letter telling them that if adwords is not on the site within a month there will be a formal complaint issued to Trump, demanding Google be broken up as a monopoly. And Zedo needs the same punishment for loading viruses onto this site when I gave them a chance. There is no excuse for them to kill off alt media by killing off income while pretending it does not exist. That is precisely what the anti trust laws are for, and it is high time for enforcement. This site, even after all the damage, would easily produce at least $10,000 USD per month from ads. I'd post fewer than most people and settle for half that or even less just to keep it with predominantly the same appearance as it is now.

Anonymous sent:

Hi, Jim! Sorry you're being given so much grief for your computer and helping us all in the world! Was just watching a TV movie and realized I don't relate to most everybody on TV, they're all Jewish. Then I realized, "Hey, why on earth hasn't every non-Jew sued Hollywood producers, directors et al for hiring only Jews???!!!" Talk about discrimination! :-("

My response: Hacks: I don't really care that much, other than that it is part of the game and I laugh when I win, pull hair out when there is a problem . . . and it is not just me, Drudge is getting attacked a lot now, Mike Rivero gets attacked constantly and I have a hunch many many others get attacked more than they know but most servers have software that can see an attack and shut it down automatically so many people out there get attacked and don't know it. I mention it when someone actually back doors the site and messes around. That's different from DDOS attacks which I don't usually mention as long as the site runs OK.

Jews and Hollywood? Yep, it is interesting how they are "discriminated against" when in reality they own the show. .

Don't believe the MSM lies, Trump is probably the most popular president ever.

The media is saying Trump is very unpopular. That's a lie. Though it is difficult to get solid numbers with everyone in the MSM lying, my guess is that Trump has approximately 70 percent popular support (which is less than his original 78 plus percent) because trolls are having a marginal success at bashing him online.

I saw the legitimate polls and posted a few. Trump bashed the election into the gutter with at least 75 percent of the vote, and that's the only way he overcame the obvious blatant rigging. Occasionally, before the election, there would be an MSM poll that did not get rigged in the beginning, and when that happened, with around 50,000 votes cast Trump was always at around 80 percent. Only after stuffing Hillary with bot votes or direct edits did she ever look like she mattered. And that's precisely why she lost, even though she knew she had it in the bag.

RECORD COLD TEMPERATURES IN RUSSIA.

Or not. Yes it is cold. -52 Celsius cold. But it is about 30 degrees Fahrenheit warmer than the coldest it has ever been in Russia, and about 70 degrees Fahrenheit warmer than the coldest it has ever been in Antarctica. Antarctica routinely gets cold enough for carbon dioxide to turn into dry ice, but it does not happen there because the atmosphere does not have a high enough concentration of Co2 for crystals to form and fall as Co2 snow.

Trump to kick press out of white house?

The MSM is saying it, but I can't find anything to back it up as long term legitimate. From what I can find, Trump will temporarily keep the press out while he arranges a way to allow the alt media to be there, along with the MSM. Right now, there is only a way to accomodate about 100 MSM journalists, and Trump wants a way for bloggers and radio hosts to be there as well. That's a far cry from "kicking the media out".

I'll say how it should be done: At every press briefing there should be a live stream so EVERYONE, including me in Mexico, can watch his press conferences and deliver the unfiltered truth. With the MSM press being the clear enemy of the truth, that would be a great way to do things so the alt media can always provide a balance to the MSM lies, omissions, and spin.

As far as I see it, the "Trump is kicking out reporters" meme is just a ruse, a "poor me" from the MSM as the MSM loses its monopoly, and along with that, it's ability to lie and get away with it.

Trump and the Jews

The message box is full of trolls telling me I am a POS because I never talk about Trump and the Jews. Rather than speak to trolls, I'll speak to reality.

I have mentioned Trump's Jew problems NUMEROUS TIMES, and will mention them again but this site is NOT going to be dedicated to bashing Trump just because to a large extent the Jews have him fooled. Trump is getting lied to left and right and appears to be clueless with regard to the Jews, and he's a prime sucker on the topic with his son in law who got his goy toy with Trump's daughter, and Trump does not even know it because he certainly would not allow it if he knew the "goy" reality.

With regard to that infiltration, one that was no doubt set up, there is some good news. Not for the middle east but for America yes - his son in law is going to have his efforts with destroying America stifled by an assignment to be a middle east negotiator and arbitrator. Trump could not possibly have picked someone worse for this position, however if Trump was not as stupid as we think and wanted him out of the way it could not be better because that appointment is something that will distract his son in law badly. Maybe that's how Trump got rid of him. Moving the capitol of Israel to Jerusalem was also a very bad move.

However, I am willing to overlook Trump's evident blindness on the topic of Israel if it means saving America. When it comes to AMERICA PROPER, Trump is turning out to be the best thing we have ever seen and OBVIOUSLY THE JEWS CARE MORE ABOUT DESTROYING AMERICA THAN HAVING ISRAEL GET A LITTLE BOOST, BECAUSE THE JEWS ARE ABSOLUTELY FROTHED OUT OVER TRUMP SAVING AMERICA, RIGHT AT THE VERY MOMENT THEY BELIEVED THEY HAD SUCCESS IN DESTROYING AMERICA IN THE PALM OF THEIR HAND.

The Jews don't care about a pathetic little symbolic move of the Israeli capitol, they don't care about Israel getting a few more perks, THEY WANTED AMERICA DEAD, THEY WANTED WHITE AMERICA WIPED OUT, THEY WANTED EVERY LAST CHILD DESTROYED BY A TAINTED VACCINE AND THEY HATE TRUMP BECAUSE TRUMP TOOK IT FROM THEM. They wanted California DESTROYED by a fake drought and LOST IT. They wanted ALL of America's greatness buried forever by the EPA forcing industry out and they just LOST IT. They wanted ALL non-Jewish American families destroyed by feminist brainwashing of women at the college level and they just LOST IT. They wanted more than a double income tax going straight into their pockets via Obamacare "insurance premiums", and they just LOST IT.

They wanted Pizzagate and child rape and child theft and murder to continue unabated and they just LOST IT. They wanted to be able to commit treason with a scamming media ad nauseum and they just LOST IT. They wanted all the intelligence agencies to steal every last secret and idea from creative Americans and hand it to them, and they just LOST IT. They wanted the Federal Reserve to continue on as the scam it is for time and all eternity and just LOST IT. There are hundreds of things they lost, each of them being a death crush on America, and THAT is why they keep trying to destroy Trump with the fake media they own EVEN NOW.

FOLKS, I AM VERY SYMPATHETIC TO THE PALESTINIAN CAUSE, BUT FACE IT: TRUMP IS AN AMERICAN PRESIDENT, NOT AN ISRAELI PRESIDENT AND IT IS TRUMP'S JOB TO SAVE AMERICA. Sorry, that's just the way it is. And because Trump wants to save America, the Jews absolutely hate his guts even while he gives perks to Israel. That ought to speak VOLUMES.

The Jews cherished the destruction of America far more than they loved Israel and their attitude towards Trump shows CLEAR EVIDENCE of this with every claim fronted by their WHOLLY OWNED WITHOUT EXCEPTION MAINSTREAM MEDIA. They proved it with EVERY "Russian Hacker" claim, election recount, Soros riot, electoral college manipulation, and "prostitute golden shower." Every last one of those is Jewish in origin. WHAT DOES THAT SAY??!!?? Trump sure as * is not the Jew's choice!

There trolls, I gave you what you wanted: A response on Trump sucking up to the Jews. I don't plan on it shutting you up.

SORRY TROLLS, IF THEY WANT HIM DEAD OR DESTROYED, A LITTLE SUCKING UP MEANS NOTHING compared to what would have been lost without him.

Do not forget: Trump is going to fix the election system and prevent it from being rigged again. What is that likely to give America? ANSWER: DAVID DUKE.

Let Trump patch the gaping chest wound and then let David Duke provide the rehabilitative therapy. That would be a dream come true.

ASSASSINATION ALERT: WEAPONS BEING FOUND ALL OVER DC

There are guns UPDATE: Now plus ammunition AND SILENCERS that have been hidden in the bushes and other places turning up in Washington DC, behind the secure zone, where they can be used for an assassination. Two were found in an abandoned violin case, with many more in garbage bags thrown in bushes and other places.

This would obviously be done to have guns pre-planted everywhere ahead of the inauguration so they won't be caught by tighter security at that time. There seems to be a DEFINITE plan underway to assassinate Trump and THE GUNS ARE ALREADY BEING PLANTED.

Dear Trump: Do not get blown away "BIGLY" by riding around Kennedy style.

MESSAGE TO THE ELITE: Why war with Russia is NOT a good idea

I am sure a few people in elite circles are questioning how Israel managed to bomb a base in Syria if Russian defenses are so good. That's a moot point, and I'll say this, to explain why:

If Russia is now America's only way into space, and Russia can get astronauts to and from the space station AND launch satellites successfully AND have their stuff bought by American private companies, I would not bet on a multi megaton warhead not arriving because "Russian technology sucks". Need I say more? Come on now, what percentage of success rate would Russia need with that to kick America back to the stone age? 15 percent? 5 percent? BAD reliability is 90 percent. That would not cut it for launching astronauts. Want to place your bets on a nuke not hitting you in the head on the 5 percent off chance something would go wrong, when there are 4 more following it to nail you?

Laugh at Russian tech all you want, but the cold hard reality is that even a 30 percent success rate would be beyond "successful enough". Even North Korea beats those odds by about 2.5X

HA HA HA, Here's a GOOD ONE

I was just shutting down for the night, and a news segment came across on Mex TV that had taxi cabs buying gas from an illegal gas depot someone set up with a truck on a street corner. The taxi cabs absolutely MOBBED IT. The police took notice, and rather than bust the operation, they bought gas and drove off! HA HA HA, GOOD ONE!

I'll take that as solid proof the "gas crisis" does not have the smallest amount of popular support.

Gun oil, and the BATF being abolished

Anonymous sent:

The ATF is amending gun law 27 C.F.R. Part 555 on explosives, stopping the purchase or building of ammunition nationwide. Recently gun oil regulations have been tightened, and the only 2 companies up to legal federal code are his G96 company and Chemtura Corp, who only sells to the government... says these new gun oil regulations are set up to wipe out just about every other gun oil company that sells to the public leaving you with NO OIL FOR YOUR GUN making even stockpiles of ammo useless..He says the contracts from the government coming across his desk are so BIG, it's possible he will be forced to pull his oil from public sales in the next few months and triple his company just to keep up with what the government wants' can we use other oil effectively for the guns???"

My response: On January 12, Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner re-introduced the Abolish the ATF act, which has a high chance of passing under a Trump administration. Here is a direct quote from him:

"Despite our country being trillions of dollars in debt, government spending continues to rise. Common sense budgeting solutions are necessary, and the ATF Elimination Act is one measure we can take to reduce spending, redundancy, and practice responsible governance. The ATF is a scandal-ridden, largely duplicative agency that has been branded by failure and lacks a clear mission. It is plagued by backlogs, funding gaps, hiring challenges, and a lack of leadership. These facts make it a logical place to begin draining the swamp and acting in the best interest of the American taxpayer.â€•

So your worries about gun oil availability might be moot. That said, with regard to using something other than gun oil, I have never tried that. However, based on what I have seen with various oils and how they behave in relation to gun oil, I'd say 0W-10 or 5W-20 synthetic would fit the bill just fine. HOWEVER, due to the detergents in that type of oil the oil will wash away quickly if you get the gun wet. So if that became an issue, then your choice would be air tool oil or sewing machine oil, followed by non detergent straight 30 weight as a last option. If your gun was old and sloppy, non detergent 40 weight would probably do. But I never tried any of this. I always used gun oil. Trump and Congress will probably kill this problem with early swamp draining. I would not worry much.

UPDATE: I searched this and it looks like people are having good luck with using full synthetic motor oil, as I said for my first recommendation. That would make any gun oil shortage irrelevant. THE LIGHTER THE OIL, THE BETTER or cold weather operation might make things stiff. 0W-20, 5W-20 and obviously, you would put it in a gun oil bottle to make things easy.

Military buildup in Europe

There is a huge pile of discussion on this in various forums and blogs, and they are all predicting doom. This is advertised as a military drill and not preparation for war. However, one would be blind to overlook the possibility of a false flag setup, which would be conveniently accompanied by all that military force, just waiting to pounce.

So things are tense, and days have turned into weeks. It is taking forever for inauguration day to arrive even though it is all the same days, weeks, and months. I firmly believe that all the people Trump is going to fire, including the General for the Washington DC reserve security force, want him dead to prevent his inauguration. And if that won't do it, war with Russia just might.

I don't want to harp on a topic so many others are harping on, but will at least state I am nervous.

UNSEEN.IS

IT APPEARS UNSEEN.IS IS WORKING NOW, FOR AVOIDING CENSORSHIP

Unseen.is was set up by Chris Kitze who is an obvious good guy, but there were problems at first, possibly due to infiltrations and staff problems or something like that, and I never successfully communicated with it, not even ONCE. However, it appears the problems might be resolved because the impossible happened - a somewhat sensitive E-mail from Unseen.is made it into my Jimstone.is mail box. So Unseen.is might be worth a shot for mail, and I can safely tell you it would be a HELL of a lot better than G-mail.

Assange

Anonymous sent:

Since last autumn too many odd things have been happening to wikileaks with absolutley no proper explanation from Assange. For a man who's whole operation is based on credibility that should raise a huge red flag , if he was in a position to explain I'm sure he would have, draw your own conclusions. Even the interview with Hannity was not enough to convince me.

My response: I am not going to budge on this: He was taken away in a black armored van the night after Pamela Anderson brought him a lunch that was probably poisoned. The next day "he had no internet" all of a sudden, then the dead man switch went off, a huge amount of time went by with no confirmation he even existed, he never showed up in the embassy window, and now we are supposed to believe it is the real Assange, with his real mind, and not some sort of mind control product? Whatever. If anything good comes out of "Wikileaks" now, it will be from white hats, I don't believe it anymore. Do I have proof it is not real? NOPE. But figure the odds. Consider how honest the MSM is also. There simply is no truth through official channels anymore.

At the very least, consider Assange a hero. Even if something is seriously amiss now, we owe Assange a lot, and that is something I did not think would happen (I was always skeptical of Wikileaks) but those mail hacks were way too good and I was not skeptical anymore. He was real at some point and I think that did him in. He could always just show up in the embassy window, even now. Why not? Because if they let him back in, the whole thing starts over. He was given assylum. He probably left to begin with to save his life after getting poisoned.

Anonymous sent:

Jim, How can israel bomb Syria when Russia has put S400 in Syria and warned US to stay out? are these S400s worth the name? Or, is Russia in cahouts with Israel

I have changed my response on this with the obvious: These missile systems are designed to take out ICBM's and are not cheap. Russia probably can't just blow them like candy. And short hops across the border are difficult to do anything about, so this really does not indicate any sort of failure.

Israeli jets bombed a military airport west of Damascus to smithereens a short while ago (today)

It was not a minor bombing run, it was an attempt at full destruction. Quite a provocation I'd say.

Finally I got final proof there was no drought, and the names of the people who ordered the dams drained.

BLOCKBUSTER: ABSOLUTE PROOF THERE WAS NO REASON TO DENY CALIFORNIA FARMERS WATER DURING THE SO-CALLED "CALIFORNIA DROUGHT" AND THAT SENATOR FEINSTEIN IS THE ONE WHO ALLOWED AND CAUSED THE DAMS TO BE DRAINED.

My california orange report was BANG ON. California has in fact received more water than normal over the past six years, and the drought was pure politics done on purpose to destroy the farmers and hand the land over to the elite, who will plant it with GMO. WANT PROOF? HERE IT IS:

This report was posted by Todd Fitchette of the Western Farm Press on Apr 05, 2016 which means the recent rains in California have NOTHING AT ALL to do with the overflowing dams and surplus water they had in 2016, and that instead the recent storms are a BIG FAKE EXCUSE to call a drought that did not happen "over" to avoid having senator Feinstein hung over what was done now that Trump got elected. As it turns out, "dual citizen" Feinstein is the one who caused the dams to be drained to destroy California agriculture. We now have the name of who made it happen.

Leaders react to USBR water allocation announcement

Todd Fitchette | Apr 05, 2016

"We have seen huge flows into and out of the Delta this year. Todays announcement of a measly five percent allocation to farms and cities in the San Joaquin Valley, contrasted with the State Water Projects 45 percent allocation, provides dark confirmation that a policy of destruction of farmland is in place."

I figured I would let you read what came through my e-mail inbox in the wake of the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation announced water allocations for 2016.

Below are the comments of others regarding the April 1 federal water allocation by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation.

From Jason Peltier, executive director, San Luis & Delta-Mendota Water Authority: "We are furious with todays allocation announcement. At a time when water supplies have returned to normal and the major reservoirs are in flood control operations, the federal fishery agencies continue to hoard water instead of using a balanced approach that includes water for productive California farms and businesses and many of its people.

Mother nature has given us all the water we need. There is no question that failed regulations imposed on Reclamation are not achieving their intended goals as the extreme limitations on moving water to farms and cities has had no measurable benefit to the fisheries. President Roosevelt started building this great water project 80 years ago. The mismanagement of it over the last 20 years has crippled its ability to serve thousands of California farms, people in urban areas, as well as our rural economy.

We forecast fishery controls will cause 1.5 million acre feet of water to flow to the ocean and deprive farms and cities the ability to put it to productive and beneficial use.

"We prayed for rain and Mother Nature blessed us. We begged for a water supply and instead are handed a pittance that is destroying farms, jobs and communities. The faith we once had in the government to intelligently manage our public water resources has also, sadly, been destroyed."

From Rep. Devin Nunes, R-Tulare: "Water bureaucrats will undoubtedly continue blaming the drought and global warming. But those excuses are becoming even harder to believe in light of the wet conditions brought by El Nino. So what could possibly be responsible for this crisis?

"The Sacramento Bee offers a hint: Federal and state officials have throttled back their water pumping from the Delta in recent weeks because of concerns over potential harm to Delta smelt and other endangered fish species. MY INSERT: The delta Smelt is an imported invasive species, and was a cold hearted excuse to deny water. FACT: ZERO legitimate fish species were in danger of having the farmers get their water!

"As you probably know, in the House of Representatives we have passed four bills in the last four years to ease federal regulations that limit Delta water pumping. Every one of our bills has died in the Senate amid opposition from Senators Boxer and Feinstein. MY INSERT: THERE YOU HAVE IT, A COUPLE DAMN JEWS DID THIS TO CALIFORNIA. Last December, we made a last-ditch attempt to negotiate a compromise with Senator Feinstein that would allow us to capture more water during El Nino this year - and the senator walked away. MY INSERT: THAT IS PROOF A JEW DID THIS TO CALIFORNIA ON PURPOSE.

"As extreme environmentalists continue to grieve over their precious little Delta smelt - which are not even being saved by these Draconian water restrictions - Westside farmers will be fallowing more land. Seeing as these people feed the nation, we need to keep fighting for them - no matter how long it takes - until their water supply is fully restored."

From Western Growers President and CEO Tom Nassif: "For months before the El Nino rain and snow arrived, we and many others pleaded with the federal government to capture and store as much water as possible when massive storm runoff reached the Delta.

"We have seen huge flows into and out of the Delta this year. Todays announcement of a measly five percent allocation to farms and cities in the San Joaquin Valley, contrasted with the State Water Projects 45 percent allocation, provides dark confirmation that a policy of destruction of farmland is in place.

"Already, well over 600,000 acre feet of water that could have been diverted to San Luis Reservoir has been lost to the ocean, and projections suggest that number will reach 1.5 million acre feet if common sense is not restored.

"The drought has hit farmers, farmworkers and thousands of families hard, but now with the northern reservoirs filled and spilling water to make room for spring snowmelt, the federal government has very deliberately chosen to deny available relief to thousands of Californians in the San Joaquin Valley. This action represents more than a failure of common sense. A government that deliberately chokes off water for its people is a government that has lost its moral compass."

MY COMMENT: My california orange report was based on my own knowledge and observation from when I was in California. I knew the drought (which was well underway and already killing orchards) was a SCAM. I saw the huge outflows from the dams myself, while the farmers got NOTHING. And the excuse was a drought, and the delta smelt. Now I found back up confirmation, Google did not let go of this easily because it is playing an active role in burying this SCAM, A SCAM WHICH WILL NOW END BECAUSE DONALD TRUMP WILL THROW FEINSTEIN IN JAIL OVER IT. That is one filthy bottom feeder who needs a jail house swirly BADLY.

MAKE AMERICA GREAT AGAIN. MAKE FEINSTEIN GET A SWIRLY FOR HIGH TREASON AGAINST THE UNITED STATES FOLLOWED BY A NICE STIFF ROPE. THE REPORT THAT IS QUOTED ABOVE IS HERE, published by the Western Farm Press.

A reader wanted me to send proof the California drought was a pure fabrication to an "old retired dam tender" who could not believe the government would ever do it. I found the needle in the Google haystack. THERE IT IS. And remember, this web site was the only major venue that nailed this topic with perfection. Consider that when watching any MSM network, which did nothing but aid and abet this scam with fake reporting.

This "wave cloud" is the real deal

This appeared over Australia. I am posting this because I am sure some people are going to say this shows chem trails. It does not. First of all, if a plane laid these down the wing disturbances would have stirred them up on subsequent passes. More importantly, when I used a photo editor to extract max detail from the photo (shown here) you can clearly see from the texture and color of the clouds that this is a natural wave cloud formation. These are formed in a way similar to mackerel clouds (which look like fish scales) seen in the U.S.

If these were chem trails, they'd have a bluish tint, and be featureless, and would not stay in such perfect form long enough to get a picture like this. Nice shot!

A few quick comments on the message window

Military buildup in Russia, and provocation of China

Yes, I am watching that. America has put troops in Poland, where Russia clearly does not want them, and Russia sees it as an act of aggression. In response, Russia has put nuclear forces on high alert and positioned them, at the same time American aircraft carriers are all sitting in U.S. ports, where they can be conveniently nuked, AT THE SAME TIME the U.S. dropped massive hardware into Europe, with estimates ranging from 2,500 to 3,500 tanks and other vehicles, all ready for Russia, AT THE SAME TIME America is provoking China, and Taiwan is getting rebellious.

Obviously something is up. Buy some extra noodles I guess, and at least have a few bottles of water stored somewhere. What else can I say? Everyone is turning blue holding their breath until inauguration day. Nothing has actually happened yet. Holding my breath

Liberal "snowflakes"

I have over the past while received several messages saying the term "snowflake" in reference to liberals is ruining the English language. Terms such as "gay" which used to mean happy are then presented as proof of word destruction. However, since a snowflake is an object that we won't be getting rid of soon, I see no harm in using that word to describe liberals.

After all, a liberal, like a snowflake, has a light weight intellect that melts instantly when the heat of truth is on. They are also usually very cold hearted despite pretending to be warm and loving because they accomplish their "love" only through theft via taxation of producers, which is then handed to those who do not produce ALL THE WHILE THEY BAN PEOPLE WHO TOOK NOTHING FROM ANYONE OTHER THAN THEMSELVES FROM GIVING TO THE HOMELESS, LIKE THE CHURCHES HAVE BEEN DOING AND MANY INDIVIDUALS DO OUT OF THEIR OWN POCKETS.

Yes, a liberal is only happy with giving from that which was taken from others via force while skimming plenty for themselves, and then threatening to prosecute the true givers with bogus laws about "health" and whatever else they dream up to stop real people from truly giving and showing welfare. There are all too many stories of people being prosecuted for feeding the homeless to deny this, a reality directly caused by cold hearted liberals providing only via strings attached, from what they took from others, in their quest for cold hearted power. The cold, low substance snowflake that vanishes quickly under the heat of truth yet can put a semi in the ditch describes a liberal so well that no, I'd have to say that is not any sort of word abuse whatsoever.

After I posted the above about snowflakes, anonymous sent:

1. It's a vilification of the divine beauty of natural snowflakes when somebody labels these pseudo-liberals (they aren't liberal but fascist communist skidmarks aka shitstains of stubborn intolerance) cosy names like SNOW FLAKES!
2. It's poisoning the purity of clear language for truthful communications if terms are misused.
3. In comparison: you don't flatter serial killers with terms like 'dolls & dudes' or 'mallethead' ... do you?

These FAKE LIBERALS should be called what they really are, their self-flattering terms be avoided like chicken shit. Destruction of truthful communication starts with intentional wrong-wording, mis-use of common terms, twisting of meanings. For example: George Orwell's book "1984" with rules for NEW SPEAK tells how it's done by the ruling EngSoz party. Precise wording is like a sharp knife to cut thru the veil of lies.

Have a nice day!"

My response: Ok. Another reader sent this:

"Snowflake Liberals: Also, snowflakes are hexagonal, get it, their form is literally a David star. Keep this word it is up to the point!"

My response: If a boy was called a snowflake when I was growing up, that would have ruined his reputation because the implications of the word when applied to people or ideologies are quite well defined and not at all flattering.

The most probable way to oust Trump

RINF posted a great report about how establish Republicans could get rid of Trump and put Pence in his place, perfectly legally and without repercussions. Trump had better watch his appointments AND MAKE LAST MINUTE CHANGES or THIS could happen

Egypt accepted Monsanto GMO and it is BAD.

This proves the fact that GMO is unhealthy has to be intentional. You can't get it wrong and change corn so much that it is not substantially equivalent to corn anymore from a metabolic standpoint without willful intent, and what just happened in Egypt proves that is exactly what happened. Egyptian GMO from Monsanto is just as bad as America's GMO from Monsanto which is called NK603.

Different corn varieties grow well in different parts of the world. Egyptian corn is called Ajeeb corn, and Monsanto got into even that, with a product called Ajeeb AG. And when this product was fed to rats, it damaged their intestinal tracts significantly within 90 days, just like what happens with American variants of GMO corn. This cannot possibly have happened by mistake.

There have been many studies done that prove GMO corn destroys fertility and eventually, after five generations, rats fed GMO were so deformed and genetically damaged that they could not reproduce at all, with a 100 percent failure rate. Obviously if population control is the goal, the so-called "elite" will want the same for us. This video pretty much says it all

Access to old reports being restored

I am, at present, finally linking in everything on this site. I am going to do it by dates first and then improve from there. This is not a small job.

Despite conflicting reports about how it happened, the "Golden Shower Memos" originated on 4chan, and rather than take the rap for being THAT STUPID about how McCain found them a stupid story about a British spy releasing them was hatched to cover CNN's sorry behind and make McCain look a little less stupid. 4CHAN IT IS, ON NOV 1 IT WAS PUT THERE and McCain was probably pointed to it over the week end.

In the end I guess the damage is done either way, but it still galls me to see them pop up more lies to take the edge off of it.

Heads up: Golden shower gaffe put Trump in danger

Here's why: The corrupt leadership in the intelligence agencies has done everything possible to stop Trump, including going along with this hoax and saying it is real. This got shut down so fast despite them saying it was real that it no doubt made many heads spin. And I believe that from this point on, they are going to be truly dangerous. Here is the procedure:

1. First, when someone you don't like is rising in power, you ignore that individual. You subvert all efforts by silencing and censoring them. Trump blindsided them, so they missed this step.
2. If step 1 fails, you resort to slander. That failed miserably, because Trump simply had no dirt that could be exploited convincingly.
3. If step 2 fails, you issue death threats, and repeat step 2. This has happened in abundance against Trump.
4. If step 3 fails, you then resort to killing. This is where they are at now, after the golden shower flop.

They are under extreme pressure to kill Trump. If they fail, they are going to jail and at the very least will lose their jobs. The worst agencies the world has ever known (other than perhaps peak cold war evil in communist Russia as a possible match) are under threat from Trump. Add to that the most despicable monsters, like Soros, Rockefeller and Rothchild are also under serious threat from Trump. And what about the Clinton death machine? None of these are going to go down without a fight.

And that fight is going to take the form of either 1. Attempting to kill Trump, or 2. Attempting to prevent Trump from taking office via war with Russia, even if in the final midnight hour they have to go nuclear because Russia did not play.

Turbulence ahead.

Trump's golden shower was a 4 chan hoax (and McCain took the bait)

Though Drudge pinned this on McCain, who probably had a lot to do with it getting huge exposure, I am not backing off on the alt media/4chan "exploit" because McCain would simply have been the one to fall for it. Someone had to, and McCain was it. This hoax was posted to 4chan on Nov 1. There is no conceivable way that McCain would have tried this out of the blue, he probably thought it was real.

Trump is a grand master of political chess, despite what CNN says. I would not be one bit surprised if Trump set this up to see exactly who fell for it, so they could be rightfully fried and eaten somewhere in the proximity of January 20. If he did not do this, it was an obvious gift from God that will make it possible to take out a huge pile of trash on day 1.

Last November, right in the middle of the attack on the alt media, when liberals were writing countless fake news stories to trip alt media up, someone in alt media fired back with a fake intelligence report about Trump getting golden showers from prostitutes in a Moscow hotel and posted it to 4chan. This "hotel event" was "recorded by Russian intelligence, that had the hotel room rigged with cameras" and was presented as a "34 page intelligence report produced by America's intelligence agencies, and proof that Russia had the means to blackmail Trump". It was done very convincingly. As it turns out, McCain was the one who took the bait and dropped it in the spotlight.

Well, that fake report sat on 4Chan since Nov 1, and was the exact same type of exciting headline that the liberal scum was using against alt media, to get their phony stories to go viral, AND THE ENTIRE MSM FELL FOR IT HOOK LINE AND SINKER.

So they posted this hoax all over the place. Here is Newsweek's version, and they embellished it beyond belief, every word of this Newsweek report is FAKE NEWS. JUSTICE SERVED. I'M LAUGHING AT THESE FOOLS!

SPYTALK

TRUMP, RUSSIAN SPIES AND THE INFAMOUS 'GOLDEN SHOWER MEMOS'

BY JEFF STEIN ON 1/10/17 AT 11:38 PM

DONALD TRUMP

RUSSIA

The story began making the rounds at Washington dinner parties late last summer: Donald Trump had been caught in a compromising sexual position by Russian intelligence agents during a business trip to Moscow. According to one version, told by a high-ranking Obama administration diplomat, Russian intelligence services, acting on Trump's well-known obsession with sex, had arranged an evening for him with a bevy of hookers, with hidden cameras and microphones recording all the action. The jaw-dropping detail that topped the story? Trump had somehow engaged in "golden showers," sex acts involving urine.

Now, according to a leaked annex to the combined U.S. intelligence agencies' report on Kremlin intrigues in the American elections, Russian security agents watched Trump engaging in "perverted sexual acts" that were "arranged/monitored by the FSB," the Kremlin's leading spy agency. The FSB, it said, "employed a number of prostitutes to perform a golden showers (urination) show in front of him." Not only that, according to the report's anonymous Russian sources, Trump deliberately chose for his escapade "the Ritz Carlton hotel, where he knew President and Mrs. Obama (whom he hated) had stayed on one of their official trips to Russia and defiling the bed where they had slept."

The veracity of the report and its sourcing have not been verified. CNN reported only that a two-page summary of the report "was presented last week to President Barack Obama and President-elect Trump [and] included allegations that Russian operatives claim to have compromising personal and financial information about Mr. Trump." It cited "multiple U.S. officials with direct knowledge of the briefings,"

As you can see, Newsweek and the rest of the MSM fell for this hoax completely.

So this morning, Russia stood up and said "We have no compromising information on Trump, the report is a total bluff." They then followed up with this quote - "The Kremlin has no compromising information on Trump. This report does not correspond to reality and is nothing but an absolute fiction". THAT is how viral this went - it went SO VIRAL in the real fake media (which happens to be mainstream fake) that Russia had to issue an official statement saying the whole thing is false!

Ok, so now that you know this, GO BACK AND READ THAT NEWSWEEK REPORT, AND HOW THEY SPUN THIS. THE ENTIRE THING IS FALSE, yet they have in their report Trump getting briefed, Obama getting briefed, the "story making the rounds at Washington dinner plates last summer", the WHOLE 9 YARDS. If you have any subscriptions to Newsweek or anyone else who parroted this crap, I suggest canceling because they just proved beyond all question that they are as FAKE AS FAKE GETS. HA HA HA HA A GREAT STRATEGY TO DESTROY MSM CREDIBILITY

BY SOMEONE IN ALT MEDIA, I wish I could say I was the one who triggered it. Whoever did this deserves some sort of national medal of honor.

Julian Assange

Jim, Chris Kitze (Unseen.is and BIN) here with a comment about Julian Assange's bitcoin adventure today. People are claiming it "proves life". In fact, all it proves is someone, possibly a double, could read a hash from the bitcoin blockchain. These hashes are nearly unique codes that are created every few minutes by Bitcoin as part of the validation process and the code that was read does demonstrate that whatever happened, it actually did happen at that time and it wasn't a recording mashed together. However, it does not definitively prove that it was actually Julian -- any monkey can read a hash. I'll believe Julian is intact when someone who has known him for years confirms facts that only those two would know, such as a location they had coffee many years ago, or where they first met. Even if he is alive, there is no telling what he went through and if the entire Wikileaks operation is compromised."

My response: I was contacted by people who were running an effort to "recover Julian's data and" "reclaim bitcoin for Wikileaks" and that "the blockchain was compromised." Many readers will remember this straight up, I have found it and re-posted it. Here it is. It would prove you right.

This would obviously confirm Julian is in trouble because he is not here to correct the breaches. Here are a few of the messages sent:

"Here are the tools to get Assange's information out of the blockchain. We are about to get gagged. Or worse. Pls do the right thing. These tools won't be around for long. FULL DISCLOSURE, let the people have the truth. No matter how damming. Sir, this information is dangerous. They killed Jean, and group one is missing. We need this public asap. We need more people involved. Be safe, sir. Thank you for being a true patriot. The tools will be improved if we can.<https://github.com/WikiLeaksFreedomForce>. And here is the bot link to the archived conversation as we built this. You will need the conversation to understand what to do. <https://blargbot.xyz/logs/#3cvppr> this is time sensitive. Thank you."

"I hope that if you have the resources available, you have people looking into the blockchain. The massive ddos was 10/21. We have found things, and others have reported finding full files and keys. We are working on discord in the open. Members of my team have gotten gag orders, and I'm sure my time is coming soon. Pls don't let this be for nothing"

Also. We are unsure of if the blockchain was altered on Oct 27 2016. We have been using a local for our tests. U can find it on the darkweb. These tools... Just a person who has had enough of the bullshit"

My comment: This is a prime reason to not think all is well with Julian.

Here's a message that spooked me:

The scum who run the NZ government use 1080 poison dropped from helicopters over huge tracts of wilderness with the stated aim of killing off all deer, as they are an introduced species, as well as possums. What happens is that they kill off the entire ecosystem. From a conservation viewpoint this makes absolutely no sense at all --- the only plausible reason is to eliminate all wild sources of food. Why? So that when the rats flee to NZ the locals, the few who will not take kindly to their arrival, will have nothing to eat when they go bush into wilderness areas, and they risk death from eating and in some cases drinking from the 1080 poisoned ecosystem. If you think the 1080 will break down, it won't do for a long time under normal circumstances in the wilderness ... and anything that dies keeps on poisoning the ecosystem anyway.

Deer head for water when dying from 1080, the eels eat them and die, the freshwater crayfish eat the eels and die ... everything dies. Save the native birds you reckon? No, most die. NZ has been taken over by scum getting ready for the influx of their mates. Airfields have been built at taxpayer expense. And most NZers are too stupid now to understand, let alone do anything to stop this. (See youtube "poisoning paradise") And certain US administration personnel left immediately prior to the past 2 serious earthquakes. Paradise it was ... but now it is paradise lost. RIP NZ."

My response: 1080 poison is the classic fluoride poison that used to be used for rats in the U.S.

The Neutron bomb

Anonymous sent: Question: By 1970 we already had nuclear weapons that would wipe people only OR structures only. What if our own launched one that wiped us out but left the structures?"

My response: You are talking about the neutron bomb. A neutron bomb is a type of nuke that is arranged to produce less blast and a huge burst of radiation. It is still a nuke, and will still level buildings but not as much. Blocks instead of miles. It is designed to produce a huge radiation pulse. The atmosphere is good at blocking radiation, so outside of two miles or so, it will be a lot less effective. A neutron bomb will kill everyone inside a building and leave the building standing.

I don't think they will use it on the American people, because their goal is total destruction, and not to make it easy for those who remain to rebuild.

Merryl Streep again

Anonymous sent Jim - your swearing in the streep rant is untypical of your messages; you must really be po'd about that bag and her ilk. Your restraint towards doing so over the years is one reason why I enjoy your updates and the information. On another note, are you hearing/receiving any input on NaturalNews site being compromised? Am seeing major errors and delays in loads, and one recent download completely locked up my chromebook; never happened before. Using the IPA though, it works fine. Sent Mike a note twice regarding this and what you suggested with the ipa to prevent undetectable intrusions or redirects, so if others are also experiencing that there, might want to send NN a note about it."

My response: Merryl Streep is my most hated actor by a long shot. She's pure damage. I cannot stand even a still photo of her, let alone see her act. Anyway, with that aside, Natural News is getting attacked big time. Everyone is. Today, despite many attempts, I could not get into the server until after 10 AM and I did not want to do combat mode. There are big problems getting this site from Europe, especially Germany. No total blockages yet, just difficulty. Additionally, donations from Europe appear to be blocked and I have been told this many times by people who have tried. So the attacks are diverse.

The only alt media venue I know of that knows as much about staying visible as I do is Beforeitsnews and affiliate Unseen.is. Alex Jones will probably stay visible at great expense. Natural News I am not sure of, they have been getting severe damage lately, and I have no doubt it is because they tell the truth about vaccines and other medical topics, but mostly they are in deep dirt over being accurate with vaccines, which are no doubt the great weapon of doom for the elite. Many people think vaccines were always bad. I do not take that stand, I believe they were of huge benefit up until around 1985 and then they became weaponized and are probably the worst threat to mankind on the face of the globe now. The autism and other vaccine induced problems are intentional, no ifs or buts. Since Natural News is reporting on this accurately, they are like a giant target with a huge bullseye just waiting to take a hit.

Alex Jones and others, (even Drudge) are not such a high priority but they are still targeted. Hopefully all of this will change with Trump at the helm.

More Meryl Streep

Couldn't agree more about that creep, Streep! Watching two feisty black gals called Diamond and Silk kick Meryl to the curb might assuage your rage, it did mine anyway....these ladies are a hoot. Youtube vid is called 'Meryl Streep Underhandely Came For The Donald, Diamond and Silk Straight Out Came For Her

My response: There you nailed it, yes - that's it - why I'd rather be five aisles over looking at toilet brushes than in an aisle with her - she's "creepy". She sets off my soul's alarm bells, like some sort of ghoul even though her face itself is not the cause of it.

Vincente Fox

I have stated many times that I have a direct contact with Mexico's elite. And I have a direct contact with former Mexican President Vicente Fox's immediate family. I got word of what he is saying about the gas crisis. Here it is from my direct contact, translated to English by me:

"Mexico sends it's oil up to the U.S. where it gets refined. In this step, corrupt politicians make a profit, and they take too much. Then, when the gas comes back, the same corrupt politicians dip into it again, and take WAY TOO MUCH. It is damaging the Mexican economy badly and amounts to a direct theft from the Mexican people. No economy can do well if so much theft takes place with a key commodity such as gasoline, because when people pay twice as much for it as they should, there is that much less money to buy what the economy produces, and as a second hit, the high fuel price makes what that economy produces more expensive. In the end, the people pay more with less money to buy with.

And additional detail - He hates Trump. However, even if Trump gets nasty and starts heavily taxing imports it will only have about a 5 percent impact on the total Mexican GDP. His huge concern is the totally unnecessary gas gouging that could easily set the Mexican economy back between five and seven times as much. It amounts to a perfect storm getting ready to smash Mexico, and the good among the Mexican elite are very worried. They have made it clear: American business has nothing to do with the gas prices, it is 100 percent caused by corruption on the Mexican side of the equation. Vincente Fox still cares about Mexico very much and is not happy about what is going on now at all.

Anonymous sent: "Hey Jim, in the past you mentioned Mexico having massive capacity for refining gasoline. Why then, would they be stupid enough to ship it to the United States to have it refined? Makes NO sense."

My response: There are refineries here. Obviously Mexico can make gas. But Mexico also uses a huge amount of butane. Butane fills 100 percent of the role of natural gas and propane in the U.S. I cannot just look at a refinery and know what it is actually producing. Obviously if Vincente Fox says America refines at least a huge portion of the gasoline I am not going to argue with that.

Previous day starts here (9th)

I just saw Meryl Streep's Golden Globes destruction on Mex media

It made my blood boil. I always hated her, the most HATED of all of Hollywood's trash, above even Barbara Streisand. Even if I never saw her act, her "poor me" "I am an easy victim" "but I care so much" demeanor would cause me to flee five aisles away at Wal Mart, where I'd spend time looking at kleenex and toilet brushes until I knew damn sure she was gone from the aisle I wanted to be in.

And Mexican media played totally unrelated footage of Trump where he's smirking about something, as if it was related. It was a Cat 5 bullshit storm. Enough to make me pop an aneurism. No doubt about it, even if the audience wanted to hear what she said, she wrecked the party anyway.

BOYCOTT TIME, HOLLYWOOD CAN STICK IT. I will never get over that, I already said I hated the bastards, that just cemented it real good. As if that kind of crap "defines America" as many of those trash based losers have claimed over the last couple days.

The drive through tree that fell - opinion

I drove through that tree many years ago. People are saying that the hole in it caused it to fall. I doubt it, THE GEO ENGINEERED STORM HAS CAUSED WINDS OF 173 MILES AN HOUR (281 km/h). Outside of a tornado or hurricane, that could be a world record. THAT is what downed that tree. And they are doing this, as I have said, to fill the dams after intentionally draining them to destroy California agriculture in the name of a drought that never happened, as proven in an old report I pasted in farther down this page where I document that the rain charts were completely normal, and the dams were wide open, letting the water out as fast as possible. This put the San Joaquin river past flood stage while they gave nothing to California growers. This is documented fact. The drought was a big fat lie. They have to get the dams filled before Trump gets in to avoid questions, and this storm is precisely that. They have already done irreparable destruction to California growers. There will be more on this tomorrow.

Elites and radiation

TokaCola sent:

Hello Jim! I have a question about nuclear bombs and radiation. If the elite want to reduce the population and survive the devastation in their bunkers, how would this even work? How could they horde enough food and water and fresh air to live like rats underground until it was safe to come out. They tell us Chernobyl is still not safe to go near after 30 years and they are working at sealing it completely off with concrete and that it would be hundreds of years before anyone could go near it.

However after Nagasaki and Hiroshima people right away moved back and rebuilt. Are the old bombs that different than today? Does it have something to do with higher concentrations in a plant like Chernobyl? Are they lying about radiation risks? This just goes to show they are truly insane for even wanting to survive a nuclear war. Who would want to witness the devastation and be responsible for it happening, including the millions and even billions of deaths including people they knew and perhaps were related to? Do they want to prolong their lives and avoid death that much because they are deathly afraid of meeting their Maker face to face? And if they kill off all the people that were such an inconvenience to them and who allowed them to get so powerful and filthy rich, who would they feed off now with all those people dead? This is truly an insane mind set.

Maybe the radiation thing is over emphasised but still wouldn't they possess even a mustard seed of a conscience that would kick in when they came out of their rat holes to see a world completely destroyed, no power, no water, no heat, no food, and dead bodies everywhere? They'd be better off dead too. I truly think these evil bastards believe they can somehow cheat death and bypass their inevitable recompense with God. Even though they act like satanic, atheist psychopaths, there still must be a little doubt in the back of their minds that they might be wrong and be sent straight to hell. I think what fuels all this is their fear of death, which we are NOT supposed to fear especially if we live God-centered lives and any small sins can easily be covered. Makes one wonder how God will deal with them and their unimaginable transgressions, like wiping out 80% of humanity for their own gain. I think God will have a special kind of hell waiting for them. Thoughts?

My response: The nukes dropped on Japan used less than 100 KG of material and dispersed it a lot better than Chernobyl did. Chernobyl had thousands of times that much, and did not disperse it as well. Additionally, Chernobyl had materials with longer half lives. Even at that, Hiroshima and Nagasaki should not have been inhabited so quickly.

But you are more than right about nuclear war, because if that happens and American nuclear facilities cannot be tended to as a result, they will all go off like Chernobyl and would actually be a lot worse than Chernobyl. If they were not ruined from a direct hit, they'd all go idle and maybe self sustain for a century or so, and then it would all go to hell like Chernobyl. Eventually they'd all be pits from hell no matter what. Those that got wiped out from near or direct hits would deliver showtime within a day. It would be completely unavoidable. Today's nuclear situation is one that can only be maintained safely as long as things are stable. A nuclear war would totally wreck that.

So if the elite really do want nuclear war (and it really seems so) it is obvious that the only thing they seek is the death of Western civilization, while they hide out in New Zealand or some other place that won't get the brunt of the disaster. Seeking a hole in the ground will indeed not cut it, unless they want to evolve into being gnomes.

Obama is NOT a Muslim

William sent:

"My thoughts on the real Obama, mask off:

Another big lie that won't die is that Obama is Muslim. The MSM and every troll in town keeps reinforcing this with some comment or other. Obama is a Zionist Jew, and he helped create and back ISIS which is a US mercenary army acting as proxy for Israel to destroy neighboring Syria. A Muslim would not have done this. Militant "Islam"(NOT) is a Saudi based false flag training program to defame Islam, but Obama is not that either. He does token controlled opposition to Israel as window dressing, but he has done more for Israel than Bush or Clinton. His sealed bio hid the fact that his mother Ann Dunham was Jewish as were the rest of them (certainly his brother Malik who exposed him). They were also a CIA employed family. Being CIA explains how easily he was groomed as president (like Bush Sr.), and what a fraud he is.

My response: Obama is obviously not a Muslim. If there is any Muslim in Obama, it is a cheese cloth veil to hide the crypto Jew within. You are right, and whatever Trump does for Israel is going to pale in contrast to what Obama has done, under Obama Israel launched the greatest massacres in Palestine in Israel's recent history. Any pretext of Obama being Muslim is nothing but a transparent joke. Obama is a satanist with a crypto Jew shell covered with a cheese cloth transparent veil of Islam made from the cheapest synthetic material you can possibly get from China.

Mexico to seize U.S. assets?

Mexico has threatened to seize $100 billion in U.S. assets in Mexico if Trump follows through with policies he has stated would happen against Mexico. This means: General Motors manufacturing? SEIZED. Other corporate manufacturing, SEIZED. My comment: THAT WOULD BE A GREAT WAY TO TELL AMERICAN CORPORATIONS HOW SMART IT WAS TO SEND AMERICAN JOBS TO MEXICO. Kick them in the shorts. I'M ALL FOR IT!

QUOTE:

"Translated that means that should Trump follow through on threats to expand the wall, withdraw U.S. participation in NAFTA or stop remittances, Mexico could target U.S. assets in Mexico. Those assets are estimated by the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative to amount to over $100 billion." See this

Warning shots fired at Iran

I almost did not mention this until Drudge put it up. A Navy vessel fired several warning shots at Iranian war boats that approached it rapidly in the strait of Hormuz. My opinion: Who cares? This type of thing happens a lot, to the point of being meaningless.

There was another headline on Drudge that I don't really believe: Alibaba is going to create 1,000,000 jobs for Americans over the next few years. QUESTION: How is a Chinese web site that does little more than sell Chinese products going to put 1,000,000 Americans to work without putting 5,000,000 out of work at the same time by undercutting American manufacturing? Good question. Ancient Chinese secret I guess.

Hollywood wants to go on strike over Trump

Hollywood is showing its true colors leading up to the Trump inauguration. And my opinion is that they can stuff it. I have for decades figured America would be a lot better off without that cesspool. Yesterday, they even had the audacity saying that they are what defines America, and that "America would die without them."

Sorry. I don't think that Ernie and Bert magic bed rides through the stars, the overt gay agenda, and overbearing immorality shown by Hollywood in any way defines America. And when I see obvious prozac and drug destroyed soulless actors try to portray people of high honor in movies about historic events it makes me gag. I can't stand to watch it.

Seriously, I used to like Adam Sandler until I figured out he was filth, I used to really like Jim Carey until he spoke out so strongly against guns and proved himself to be dirt in other ways, and now, after getting shown the light time after time in countless other examples, if the actor is Jewish I simply can't watch a movie. I am that disgusted with it all. Fortunately Tom Cruise and Mel Gibson are still out there, and very popular. Aside from animated movies those two are about the only thing I can watch without spitting nails.

So Merril Streep can use an awards ceremony all she wants to push politics and all I'll do is gag, I don't do movies much and for all I care they can all just go away. Practically anyone her age and "Hollywood" played an active part in destroying the nation with their politicized spleen and if they go on strike, I'll rejoice as Indy media rises to fill the gap. There is a huge campaign against piracy in Mexico, and as a result, even Mexican wal marts have a huge selection of Indy Media films that never saw the big screen that they sell for $1 to encourage people to not buy pirates, and many of those are every bit as good as their Hollywood counterparts. There is a variety of topics that Hollywood refuses to match. And it is not all politicized or trying to accomplish an agenda. Why can't a movie just tell a story, rather than try to prove a point? I am sick of it all. And therefore Indy media and foreign films are pretty much all we ever watch here. Hollywood really can stuff it.

On that note, one prime example of Hollywood getting it's butt handed to it on a dirty rag is a Russian animated series called "Masha and the bear". It is at least equal to to anything Hollywood puts out nowadays and it is minus the petty politics. Check this out: Masha and the Bear. Russian and Spanish versions have hundreds of millions of hits. This series is absolutely enormous in Mexico. All the episodes are this good. This is a great insight into just how much Hollywood is not the only thing going.

If this series is not available on American television anywhere, it would prove beyond a doubt that American propaganda is so entrenched that you simply are not allowed to see anything decent from elsewhere go mainstream.

We really can do without Hollywood and I'd be happy if they pouted themselves into irrelevance.

Fox News is on an EMP rant

Bunker for the elite disguised as an "EMP attack" shelter

Foxnews did a report about the re-opening of the Cheyenne mountain complex that is very eye opening.

First of all, they talk about EMP resulting in the deaths of 9 out of 10 Americans. That's a load of BUNK. YES, an extended power outage for the entire country could result in massive deaths. NO, an EMP would not be the cause. And on top of it all, practically everything we would need that would prevent starvation runs on diesel, which does not need an electrical system to work. In field testing for EMP systems that were specifically designed to fry electronics, as of 2007 (the last time I really looked into it) the maximum range for any system was 2 miles in perfectly dry air, which was reduced significantly in high humidity and reduced to as little as 200 yards in rain. And the obstacles were so great (being the laws of physics) that it was concluded that electronics frying EMP bombs would only be a localized battle field type weapon.

Nuclear EMP, which is at a much lower frequency can have an impact for hundreds of miles, but it will not wipe out electronics because it only affects extremely long wire runs (due to its lower frequency) which would mean the grid. Reality is not like the movie "the day after" which was pure B.S. from start to finish. And there is a problem with actually hurting the grid nowadays - lightning suppression systems that are everywhere would simply cause the system to shrug off EMP. This is not the 1940's or 50's anymore, the grid is a lot more abuse resistant than it was back then.

My conclusion is that the Cheyenne mountain facility is not being re-opened for any reason related to EMP. My guess? The elite have lost their bunkers in many places, and they are therefore eyeing the re-opening of that facility which is probably connected to whatever transport systems they have underground, and the $700 million that is "needed for electronics upgrades" is really going to go towards comfy mattresses and wine closets. You could never legitimately re-open Cheyenne mountain and get it all dolled up like new for that low of a price tag, something else is going on.

There will NEVER be a legitimate EMP attack on the entire country of America. But it is definitely possible to fake a nationwide EMP attack with the cell phone system, which can now be used to shut down almost every car, every smart appliance, every cell phone, and make people believe it was an EMP. I believe 100 percent that was a big reason for the cash for clunkers program - to get rid of the best older cars that could not be shut down that way. One of the rules for the cash for clunkers program was that you had to prove beyond all doubt your car was in absolutely perfect condition before it qualified for being destroyed. This was accomplished via insurance records, and emissions/safety check records which all had to be absolutely perfect in the two years prior to the cars being turned in, or they'd be refused. NOT ONE CAR that was a real clunker was destroyed by that program unless it happened by accident. QUESTION: WHY?

The TU-154

Mike sent a question about what happened with the Russian TU-154 that went down with the choir aboard. This is something I covered early on. Russia concluded it was most likely downed by a French naval vessel that was equipped with an electronic attack system as a provocation for war. Russia did not take the bait.

A huge number of great messages came in today but I have a huge headache and it is far more than normal messages. I will get to them tomorrow, but to summarize the gist of it:

1. The language gaffe in the CIA report may not have been a gaffe at all. Obviously they were talking about "influence on the Presidential election campaigns," However, if that influence was referred to as an "influence campaign" rather than an attempt to "influence the campaign" then it would not be a gaffe at all. But the failure to provide differentiation in the wording to specify what they were talking about is still very bad even if it was not quite as bad as I first thought. I'll give them the benefit of the doubt and stop laughing at them, but MY GOD, even without the gaffe the CIA report is absolutely pathetic.

I still think it was a gaffe and that they subcontracted it out because it says right in the text that the report is a "product".

2. I know there are serious issues with the Fort Lauderdale shooting that are getting censored. My gut says it was a brain washed patsy who arrived with blanks and media magic and crisis actors did the rest. But I don't feel like commenting on this beyond that right now. And it really may have been to cover up the DHS takeover of the election process, which with Trump in power I think will backfire badly.

3. Obviously Trump is in severe danger, and they fully intend to kill him if they can get away with it. But I also think it is practically assured that Trump is a big time alt media conspiracy fact seeker and he's not even a little bit stupid about anything, and I mean anything. He did what it took to get in, and basically misled politicians thus far, and once he's safely in charge a lot of people are going to be stunned that he really is "one of us". Obviously the elite know this, which is why he is definitely in danger, with MSM figureheads calling for his assassination, intelligence upper ranks calling for his assassination He's a lot smarter about this than I thought he was and that is good.

On that note, Anonymous sent:

"I previously posted my strong concerns that Donald is in danger. It has since come to mind another possibility that I can only surmise, having no direct evidence. One of his first priorities was to make strong ties with the military through General "Mad Dog" Mattis. He is known to be reasonable, but is quite ruthless when provoked. He is also respected by troops who are loyal to him. Mattis is the ideal one to give Trump a life insurance policy based on threat of reprisal. That is most likely in play so that Donald's death will result in certain military actions against the Cabal and specific leaders taken out. Like an offer they can't refuse that has been privately delivered and in effect on his death or harm to him period. He dies, you die without conditions. That would cause the Cabal to even take measures to protect him."

4. A while ago I talked about how the homeless were being taken as practice detainees. And I really think this is going on, even now. With that as a preface, I am just going to post this mail:

Just a reminder, while we celebrate Trump's victory, the situation on the ground is still dire. The homeless problem here in Seattle is still getting worse by every single day. And they are still disappearing by the hundreds at a time. We are now seeing tent cities setup on the massive concrete barriers that divide I-5 in the downtown area. These islands are extremely dangerous to reach on foot, because you need to cross 5 lanes of downtown interstate. But people are desperate enough that they are now camping in places that require some serious footwork (and balls) to reach. This is probably because all the spaces in the city are getting filled too quickly, and so they can avoid being harrassed and inevitably disappeared by the cops.

Martial law is most definitely out of the question. It would be a logistical nightmare from hell. But mass riots are going to be inevitable if something is not done quickly. Unfortunately, 99.5% of the population is too brain-dead too even notice ANYTHING at all. Their lives consist of wake up at 5, work their slave labor job, go back to their moldy tinderbox (house), and drink/drug themselves into a stupor while watching the Seahawks game. They are obviously too mentally retarded to take part in any actual rebuilding effort (a "new deal" type project). Lots of them have fancy degrees saying they know how to build things, but they only understand how to build repeat whats in the textbook.

Look at the laughable Seattle tunnel project for a perfect example. The 2 TBM machines that dug the channel tunnel were designed and fabricated in Kent, WA. But somehow, it made sense for us to custom order the largest tunnel boring machine EVER, from Japan, and have it delivered to our specially fitted pier, where hundreds of valuable waterfront acres have been turned into a massive construction site. This option was chosen over a simple "cut-and-cover" option which would have been finished years ago and would have had twice as many lanes, without tearing up massive chunks of the city for years on end.

Most of the real innovators in America are on the verge of, or in the process of "going galt". I myself walked out of my engineering job, because I was sick of being verbally abused every day while being paid barely enough to eat and drive to work. The average population here is beyond hopeless, and most likely will not survive without a major, naturally occurring, purge. Its not worth it, working your ass off everyday just to uphold an incompetent child-like population.

When I hear someone say "where did all these homeless people come from? It's so strange, I dont get it." It's very hard to resist the tempation to grab a baseball bat to knock these people out of their comas."

There is a lot more than this in the message box, and a lot more to report on but I have a headache. I will do it tomorrow.

CIA report

I have changed my report on the CIA Russian Influence report to give them the benefit of the doubt on the language gaffe I mentioned in the first report. But even without that, the report is enough of a joke. So all I am going to do is remove the language gaffe part of it.

The intelligence report referenced in the report below is HERE. The only things of substance in the report are from 2012 and then they are tenuous at best.

The report CLEARLY STATES that there was no assessment made on the impact of Russian influence on the 2016 election, even though it is advertised as such all through it! Here is a direct quote, that shows the gaffes. I'll get a capture up later, but for now the site is in combat mode so I cannot upload the capture. This is a text copy/paste from the report:

DONATIONS NEEDED

This is what is going on: Claudia's dad is a retired political lawyer. He warned us that Mexico was going to go to * in February. He was right. He told us to do EVERYTHING now, including buy land. As it turns out, we found what we were looking for, and it would be affordable but we were not even thinking about doing it. So we do not have what we need to secure it. We need approximately $2,500 USD by Feb 1 or the same land is suddenly going to cost 4X as much. That is something we cannot do. It is in an EXTREMELY SAFE area. It is a perfect bug out type spot that still will allow normal life. It has 3 different natural water sources. LONG STORY.

I am not asking for too much - Now, the MSM is begging for donations because web sites like this one destroyed them, and did it with far less than 1 percent of their budget. Take a look at what The Guardian just posted:

"Since you're here, we have a small favor to ask. More people are reading the Guardian than ever but far fewer are paying for it. And advertising revenues across the media are falling fast. So you can see why we need to ask for your help. The Guardian's independent, investigative journalism takes a lot of time, money and hard work to produce. But we do it because we believe our perspective matters - because it might well be your perspective, too. If everyone who reads our reporting, who likes it, helps to pay for it, our future would be much more secure. Become a Supporter or Make a contribution"

My comment: What would you rather give to? This site, or The Guardian? Like the Guardian, This web site has more traffic now than it has ever had since it got blacklisted which was a problem The Guardian never had to deal with, and ads were never a possibility due to the secret blacklist. The only thing I have is Wayne's ad, which I pretty much do as a favor because his book is good. This site now averages 500,000 unique visits a month. I work my * off more than a full time job's worth to keep it going. I do my best to make what is on this site 100 percent current, 100 percent of the most important topics, and 100 percent unique. It is not a re-post or link farm. It is definitely harder to run this site than a site like Drudge because it is a completely different type of site.

Granted, what I am asking for is not even for this web site. But the type of work I am doing here is easily worth $10,000 a month so asking for help with a timely land purchase is easily justified. You can donate via Paypal by going to paypal and sending to an E-mail address. In the process, a paypal account will be instantly generated that you can use for other purposes. The mail to send to would be james@jimstone.is IMPORTANT: The reply will say it went somewhere other than this web site, with the first three letters being Gam. It had to be that way. Long story.

There have been security issues lately that I am working on. I am not entirely certain they are fixed, so when you do send, (if you want to send something large, like $500,) break it up into smaller amounts and wait for confirmation of receipt of the first attempt on the front page here before sending the entire amount, and always, no matter what you send, put a message in the message window to help discourage intercepts that much more and as usual, anything sent will be posted on the front page for no less than 3 days so you can confirm it arrived. EUROPE HAS BEEN MOSTLY BLOCKED FROM SENDING BECAUSE THIS SITE IS VERY BLACKLISTED THERE. IF YOU ARE IN EUROPE I AM GOING TO POST A DIFFERENT SEND PATH TOMORROW.

I hate to beg, but this is going to make an enormous difference if it works out.

Thanks!

There must be a critical security link established (probably the message window) because the donation request is working this time.

Received donations will post shortly

ALL DONATIONS SENT ARE POSTED ON THE FRONT PAGE IN THE FULL AMOUNT FOR AT LEAST 3 DAYS, IF THEY DO NOT SHOW UP HERE, SOMETHING WENT WRONG. Paypal will report back a recipient other than what you sent to. Do not worry when that happens, just look for confirmation here, it will appear within a day. Thanks! THE BITCOIN WALLET I HAD ENDED UP BEING A FRAUD, No bitcoin search engine can find it. fixing that now.

Martin sent $56.50 USD via Paypal and the james@jimstone.is mail box, thanks!

Mike sent $1028 Mexican pesos via Paypal and the james@jimstone.is mail box, thanks!

Judy sent approximately $55 USD in the form of Mexican pesos via Paypal and the james@jimstone.is mail box, thanks!
